

Stop 1: Dinosaurs

What sounds do you hear?

What does it smell like?

You stop for lunch with two dinosaurs: a(n) _____ and a(n) _____ . What is everyone eating? Hopefully no one is eating you!

Stop 2: Ancient Egypt

What is the weather like where you are?

Describe two buildings you see or draw pictures of them:

A.

B.

You want to write a letter home. Show what the writing would look like.

Stop 3: Ancient Rome

You land in what is now Spain. Research how long will it take you to get to what is now Egypt, the other side of ancient Rome.

You wake up bored, looking for something to do. Describe or draw a picture of two activities popular in ancient Rome.

A.

B.

Stop 4: The Incas and the Aztecs

You wake up super hungry!

A. Where are you likely to find some food?

B. Draw a picture of some of the foods you'd likely eat.

The stress of the journey is getting to you! You look for a quiet place. Where might you go?
What kind of building?

Stop 5: Tudor England

If you landed in Tudor England when Queen Elizabeth came to power, how many years would you have to stay if you were there for her entire reign?

Everyone is going to the theater!

A. Whose plays would they likely have seen? Can you find the name of one of his plays?

B. Draw a picture or describe the theater. Use the back of this paper.

Stop 6: Russian Rulers

Brr! Describe the weather around you. How do you think people got through the winters?

You've landed with a family of serfs. What would a typical day look like?

Stop 7: Living in Japan

You're attacked by warriors! Oh no! What were the warriors called? What kinds of weapons do they have?

You get to live with a rich family! What would a typical day look like?

How would a play here be different than the one you saw in England?

Stop 8: Dutch Traders

Where are Dutch people from? What city are you in now?

How are people getting around the city? Would you like to travel that way? Why or why not?

There are so many wealthy people here! Describe or draw pictures of the things that made them so much money. Use the back of this paper.

This is such a pretty place! Describe or draw pictures of the things that make it so pretty. Use the back of this paper.

Stop 9: Victorian Times

Last time you were in England, Queen Elizabeth was in charge. Who's the ruler now?

You've landed in the middle of a big city! Write adjectives to describe how people are living.

Do you get to go to school? Explain why or why not.

What kind of outfit are you wearing? Describe it or draw a picture. Use the back of this paper.

Stop 10: World War I

You've landed in the middle of a battlefield in France! Describe what you see in the trenches.

What's that?! Up in the sky?!

A. Describe what you see!

B. Why was this such an important invention for the war?

Stop 11: World War II

Oh no! You've landed in the U.S. state that was just bombed by the Japanese. Where are you?

Now that the U.S. is in the war, you tag along with American soldiers on their way to Europe. But you're a kid, so they don't let you fight. What might you have done instead?

How did the war with Japan finally end? Do you agree the decision to end it that way?

Stop 12: The Moon Landing

Your last stop is out-of-this-world! Describe or draw a picture of what you see when you land on the moon. Include descriptions or picture of the other people who are with you.